

JOB DESCRIPTION AND PERSON SPECIFICATION

Class 1 Teacher Starting September 2023

[Application Closing Date: Friday 17th March 2023]

The Acorn School is an independent, co-educational school which provides an invigorating, quality education for pupils from 6 to 18 years of age. The diverse curriculum integrates creative and physical activities with academic studies to form a unique, threefold structure designed to support and engage students throughout the various stages of their development.

The school was rated 'Good' across all categories in its most recent Ofsted inspection (published March 4th 2019). Ofsted recognised being a teacher at The Acorn School as a rewarding experience:

"Teachers share a love and enjoyment of learning. Lessons often include art, songs, literature and reading as various ways to engage pupils and develop a broad range of knowledge as well as to spark an interest. Pupils respond accordingly and delight in the different activities." Ofsted, 2019.

Role Overview

A fantastic opportunity has arisen to join our team of committed class teachers and take on the role of Class 1 Teacher from September 2023.

We are looking for an experienced class teacher who possesses the ability and motivation to work with our team to provide an outstanding lower school education to our class of young, enthusiastic learners. A Steiner teacher training and/or significant experience as a Class Teacher in a Waldorf School is essential and QTS and/or experience in other educational settings, including state or independent schools, is desirable but not essential.

The hours and pay for this role are dependent on what other specialist subjects you are able to teach or responsibilities you are able to take on, outside of main lesson time.

Main responsibilities of the post:

- To teach Class 1, following the school's curriculum which is inspired by the Steiner curriculum.
 - At The Acorn School we teach combined classes and therefore, in September 2024 you will welcome the new class 1 students, who will join your existing students as a class 1 and 2.
- To carry out class teacher duties including pastoral care, planning, assessment and tracking.
- To take overall responsibility for your class, including:
 - supervising, managing and assessing the children
 - liaising with colleagues and parents
 - record keeping and report writing in accordance with statutory and school requirements
- To undertake appropriate preparation, study and training as necessary both for the effective delivery of the curriculum and to advance the school's standards, ethos and objectives.
- To work towards developing the overall quality of the teaching and learning in the Lower School.
- To attend meetings with staff and parents.
- To support the school's ethos, principles and objectives
- To be aware of the school's policies and procedures and to support their implementation and development

Requirement for attendance at meeting and school events

- Attendance at termly parent meetings.
- Attendance at weekly teachers' meeting
- Attendance at other meetings by arrangement

[Application Closing Date: Friday 17th March 2023]

- Attendance at all school events including festivals and concerts.

Working hours and remuneration

Location: The Acorn School, Nailsworth

Working Hours: This position starts in September 2023, and you will be required to be available for work from 8:15am until 1:30pm Monday to Thursday, finishing at 1:30pm on Fridays during school term time.

In the 2024-2025 academic year, the hours will increase to finish at 3.30pm between two and three afternoon each week, as class 2 students begin afternoon school.

You will also be required to be available for work at the following times:

- 5 preparation days during the holidays (3 prior to the start of the Autumn Term and 1 prior to the start of the spring and summer terms).
- You will also be required to attend Class 1 parents' evenings once per term, and school events and festivals on weekends and in evenings.

Salary: Competitive and dependent on experience

Start date: September 2023

Contract: Permanent

Leave: Due to the nature of the post, annual leave cannot be taken during term time.

Pension: Auto enrolment pension scheme

Probationary period: 2 terms

Essential application information

The Acorn School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All teaching posts are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and all successful applicants will undergo safeguarding screening including an enhanced DBS and Barred List check from the Disclosure and Barring Service and a Prohibition from Teaching Check and where required a Prohibition from Management Check (Section. 128 Check).
