

Job Description & Person Specification

Lower School Class Teacher Starting September 2023

[Application Closing Date: Friday 21st April 2023]

The Acorn School is an independent, co-educational school which provides an invigorating, quality education for pupils from 6 to 18 years of age. The diverse curriculum integrates creative and physical activities with academic studies to form a unique, threefold structure designed to support and engage students throughout the various stages of their development.

The school was rated 'Good' across all categories in its most recent Ofsted inspection (published March 4th 2019). Ofsted recognised being a teacher at The Acorn School as a rewarding experience:

"Teachers share a love and enjoyment of learning. Lessons often include art, songs, literature and reading as various ways to engage pupils and develop a broad range of knowledge as well as to spark an interest. Pupils respond accordingly and delight in the different activities." Ofsted, 2019.

A fantastic opportunity has arisen to join our team of committed class teachers and take on the role of Lower School Class Teacher for the summer term from September 2023.

We are looking for an experienced class teacher who possesses the ability and motivation to work with our team to provide an outstanding lower school education to our class of young, enthusiastic learners. A Steiner teacher training and/or significant experience as a Class Teacher in a Waldorf School is essential.

The hours and pay for this role are dependent on what other specialist subjects you are able to teach or responsibilities you are able to take on, outside of main lesson time.

Main responsibilities of the post:

- To teach a lower school class, following the school's curriculum which is inspired by the Steiner curriculum.
- To take overall responsibility for your class, including:
 - supervising, managing and assessing the children as required
 - liaising with colleagues
 - record keeping and report writing in accordance with statutory and school requirements
- To undertake appropriate preparation, study and training as necessary both for the effective delivery of the curriculum and to advance the school's standards, ethos and objectives.
- To work towards developing the overall quality of the teaching and learning in the Lower School.
- To attend meetings with staff and parents as required.
- To support the school's ethos, principles and objectives.
- To be aware of the school's policies and procedures and to support their implementation and development.

Requirement for attendance at meeting and school events

- Attendance at termly parent meetings.
- Attendance at weekly teachers' meeting
- Attendance at other meetings by arrangement
- Attendance at all school events including festivals and concerts.

Working hours and remuneration:

Location:	The Acorn School, Nailsworth
Hours:	Variable, dependent on your ability and experience to teach the lesson subjects and topics.
Start date:	September 2023
Contract:	Permanent, September 2023
Salary:	Competitive and dependent on experience
Leave:	Due to the nature of the post, annual leave cannot be taken during term time.
Pension:	Auto enrolment pension scheme
Probationary period:	2 terms

Essential application information

The Acorn School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All teaching posts are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and all successful applicants will undergo safeguarding screening including an enhanced DBS and Barred List check from the Disclosure and Barring Service and a Prohibition from Teaching Check and where required a Prohibition from Management Check (Section. 128 Check).

Candidates must have the right to work in the United Kingdom. Candidates from abroad will be asked to provide criminal records clearance from countries of residence, as well as evidence of eligibility to work in the United Kingdom.

Additional information

Whilst every effort has been made to explain the accountabilities of this post, each individual task undertaken may not be identified.

This job description is current, but following consultation with you, may be changed by the Headteacher to reflect or anticipate changes in the job, which are commensurate with the salary and job title.
